Olala Interiors furnished this elegant open-plan lounge and dining area with custom-made sofas upholstered in soft, subtle blue velvets. The furniture is raised on walnut and oak frames. A hand-knotted rug, especially selected, enhances and completes the look. A functional sculptural Molecule light hangs over the dining table for added interest and appeal.

SHADES OF CALM

THIS COASTAL DREAM HOME EMITS SERENITY THROUGHOUT

Walking into this home is sure to leave you relaxed. Looking around, you will notice that for one, the colour scheme includes a variety of blues, and this, without a doubt, has a big role to play in the calmness that is felt throughout.

The colour blue represents tranquillity, calmness and peacefulness, and these are the feelings that the interior decorators on this project got from these home owners. Using this as the main inspiration for the interior, the home is a coastal oasis in a sought-after luxury estate.

The four-bedroom residence offers a lot in the way of luxury, yet the finer details will leave you in awe. Specially selected fabric, furniture and soft finishes give the home a timeless appeal yet comfort reigns throughout – you can tell that it was created to be lived in and enjoyed.

ABOVE: The Kitchen Studio was hired to bring this kitchen to life. Specialists in the industry, the company created a space that is in line with the latest trends, and yet it will remain timeless in its aesthetics. The cabinetry in the kitchen has been manufactured using white Polygloss and Esperanza oak Melawood. Complementing the cabinetry are the white worktops, which are made from 20mm Brutestone quartz. The Kitchen Studio also supplied the built-in cupboards and the vanities throughout the home.

Upstairs you will find the main bedroom that encapsulates the essence of modest sophistication. The other three rooms carry the same theme of the rest of the home, but there is a hint of personalised attention to detail, making each room unique.

And apart from all the highlight features throughout, the one that is sure to make you stop and go “wow” is the entrance chandelier – it grabs your attention from the minute you enter the home as it hangs proudly in the double-volume entranceway. What better way to be welcomed into a home that oozes tranquillity. 🏡
