From summer houses to beach villas, holiday homes can offer the ultimate retreat with all the familiar comforts.

For these owners a secured golf estate in KwaZulu-Natal with a seaview and luscious greens won their hearts. “We were drawn to the estate’s beauty. The horse stables, golf course, walking trails, clubhouse and restaurant facilities all complement an easy indoor and outdoor lifestyle,” they say.

Seeking a retreat from city living, “We wanted to create a holiday home that we could truly see as our home away from home, offering us comfort and space to relax, entertain and be close enough for regular weekend getaways.”

epitome of a contemporary luxury escape. Relaxed interiors against a natural palette finish off the look.

"Our most loved spaces have to be the TV, dining and kitchen areas, which are situated on the one side of the house and lead onto the pool and entertainment area, while the other side of the home opens onto our indoor garden," they say.

There's a lot to love about this beautiful five-bedroomed home. 🏡
